

PSYCHOLOGICAL DISABILITY VERIFICATION FORM

To be completed by psychiatrist/psychologist/diagnosing physician/clinical social worker

The American with Disabilities Act (ADA) speaks to the accessibility and availability of higher education for all qualified persons. At Northern Vermont University, the Coordinator of Disability Services has the responsibility to implement the provision of the ADA for persons with psychological disabilities. A psychological disability is defined by the ADA as "...a...mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities..." as indicated by the DSM 5 or WHODAS. These are serious, ongoing conditions rather than temporary or situational difficulties.

Eligibility requirements for support services for students with psychological disabilities:

1. Student provides verification for diagnosis and severity,
2. Student is assessed as having a functional limitation in the educational setting. (Psychological disability prevents student from equal access to classes, activities, or services offered by NVU to non-disabled students unless specific support services or accommodations are provided.)
