

Optional Accessibility Syllabus Statements

Students with disabilities who would like to set up accommodations in their classes should contact their Disability Services Coordinator--Pam Billings (Johnson Campus) or Denise Moses (Lyndon Campus), as early in the semester as possible. They will then be able to meet to identify appropriate accommodations and to arrange for accommodation letters to be sent to their professors. (Pamela.Billings@NorthernVermont.edu) – Dewey 123. (Denise.Moses@NorthernVermont.edu) – LAC 324

Students with disabilities who would like to set up accommodations in their classes should meet with their home-campus Disability Services Coordinator.

Johnson-based students should contact Pam Billings, located in Dewey 123, Pamela.Billings@NorthernVermont.edu

Lyndon-based students should contact Denise Moses, located in LAC 324, Denise.Moses@NorthernVermont.edu.

I encourage students to make this contact and set up accommodations within the first two weeks of class, in order to provide the most effective support.

In this course, I do my best to accommodate a range of learning styles, as I believe that we all learn differently. Students with disabilities may request accommodations other than those built into my teaching methods, and are asked to provide an accommodation letter. Johnson-based students should contact Pam Billings, (Pamela.Billings@NorthernVermont.edu), and Lyndon-based students should contact Denise Moses (Denise.Moses@NorthernVermont.edu) to arrange for the appropriate accommodations as early in the semester as possible.
